

Focus on Inclusive Teaching

Mental Health Difficulties

‘Mental Health Difficulty’ is a broad term which covers a wide range of issues. Some people experience short-term difficulties affecting their mood and general wellbeing, which can affect their ability to work, relationships and self-care. Long term conditions may include such diagnoses as anxiety, depression, bipolar

